Conscious Living

Our lives are intimately, intricately, and exquisitely connected to each others', whether we perceive it or not. InfiniSynechis means infinite correlation.

Desire is inevitable as long as we are in this world. It is what fuels the actions we take and it is what is necessary to express a longing for change.

It must be remembered, however, that desire, when borne of unconsciousness or ignorance leads to attachment, and attachment leads to suffering.

Therefore, when seeking what it is that you desire be aware:

"There is no ultimate desire which when fulfilled would set one free, for there is no desire that will not set another one still more deceptive and more cruel."~ Author unknown

Philanthropy

Philanthropy is love for humanity, expressed in many ways. In our society this equates to monetary gifts, but that is a limited view of it.

When you give of your time, talent, well wishing intent, if you expect nothing in return, that is philanthropy.

Advice on Living by a 95 year old billionaire

Charlie Munger, the 95 year friend and right hand man of Warren Buffet summarized it here so beautifully.

Live simply, be happy, do the work that makes you happy.

95-year-old billionaire Charlie Munger: The secret to a long and happy life is 'so simple'

A wise man once said: "To accumulate wealth, one either has to increase the means or diminish the wants."

Beyond the basic necessities of life, food, clothing and shelter, what we all seek is to be happy, live life in peace and express creativity.

This yearning for expression is why even the already rich people continue to work, as do those who are already accomplished in their fields.

No matter the circumstances of our birth, our past, we begin with the NOW. Now is when the past and the future converge. It is what we have.

Man's creativity is inexhaustible. We just have to learn how to accept the present moment peacefully in order to move forwards.

Advice on Success by Suzy Welch

"Ignore the idea that you have to meet and connect with everyone. Instead, "focus your energy on forging authentic business relationships." "
